All the prices shown below are in US dollars. Destination country VAT and custom taxes are not included. Shipment is not included.

MEDIATOR / TERMINAL / TERMINAL GUI SOFTWARE

Licensing of Mediator or Terminal server is either for (doesn't apply to Terminal GUI):

- concurrent connections – applications (EXEs) accessing Mediator server or terminal sessions connected to Terminal server (each user session takes one license),
- concurrent devices – workstations accessing Mediator or Terminal server (sessions connected to the server from the same workstation are treated as one user and take one license only)

NOTE! If there are two or more Mediator applications or Terminal sessions running on the same workstation and the applications are connected to the server via different network protocols, the workstation will be treated by the server as two different devices.

Each software package contains:

- Mediator or Terminal server
- client libraries
- user's manual (PDF version)
- license

NOTE! Each Terminal server should be ordered with the license for at least two concurrent sessions or devices.

OTC software package price depends on the following factors:

- Type of the software (Mediator or Terminal)
- Licensing method (for concurrent connections or devices)
- Maximum number of sessions or devices concurrently connected to the server

Additionally for Mediator servers:

- Client application type:
 - any application type i.e. CA-Clipper, Harbour, xHarbour, Delphi, COM and C++ (Enterprise version)
 - applications compiled with Harbour/xHarbour compilers, Delphi, COM and C++ (xHarbour version)
- Database and operating system for Mediator server.

The final price is calculated independently for each ordered server.

To calculate the final price of Mediator or Terminal package you should:

- choose the appropriate base license price from one of the following tables: „Mediator base price for one connection license”, „Mediator base price for one device license”, „Terminal base price for one connection license”, „Terminal base price for one device license” or “TERMINAL GUI software package single license base prices”
- apply the discount from „Discount table” to calculate the single license price,
- multiply the single license price by the number of licenses you need (for Mediator servers number of licenses should be decreased by three or five – depending on the database).
- for Mediator servers add the fixed price for the first three or five users pack

NOTE!

The price of the first three or five Mediator server users depends on the database and the server operating system and is shown in the base price table.

To calculate the final price, please use the algorithm described at the end of previous page or use the price calculator available on OTC web pages at: <http://www.otc.pl/calc.aspx> (use english version). The current price list in PDF format is available on the same page.
